Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a Complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

On February 5, 2015, the court issued an order allowing Plaintiff an opportunity to identify the defendants and to submit the service documents necessary to bring the case into proper form for evaluation and possible service of process. ECF No. 10. The United States Postal Service returned the order to the court as undeliverable mail due to Plaintiff's release from confinement. ECF No. 12.

The court issued a second proper form order to Plaintiff on March 9, 2015 and directed the Clerk of Court to mail the order to an alternate address listed by Plaintiff in his initially submitted pleadings. ECF No. 15. The order warned Plaintiff that failure to provide the necessary information within a specific time period would subject the case to dismissal and apparently reached Plaintiff as it was not returned to the court. However, Plaintiff did not respond to the order and the time for response has lapsed. As Plaintiff has failed to prosecute this case and has failed to comply with an order of this court, the case is dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. See Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
